Loomhaus

Handloom home textiles for the modern Indian home

Pre-seed · Est. 2025

Jaipur, India

Our story

- Handloom weavers earn less every year as buyers move to machine-made textiles
- Young urban buyers want handmade, but can't find it in modern designs
- Loomhaus brings the two together

The products

- Bedsheets, cushion covers and throws, woven by hand in Rajasthan
- Modern colours designed in-house
- Sold on our website and Instagram

Early love

- Our first two collections sold out
- Customers across India keep coming back
- Growing fast every month

Market

India's home textiles market is worth $10B.

- Premium and handmade is the fastest-growing part

Founders

MS

Meera Singh

Founder

10 years designing handloom collections

AR

Arjun Rathore

Co-founder

Has built D2C home brands

The ask

Raising $600K pre-seed

- New collections
- Performance marketing
- A small studio and warehouse

Thank you

Meera Singh
meera@loomhaus.example